

Tips & Ideas

One, two, three...!

An easy and fun decoration that contrasts with its surroundings. The idea behind this decoration is to have different, staggeredly arranged plants of varying heights placed in cache-pots also of varying heights and shapes but in a similar shade or in similar material(s).

The result is a harmonious and elegant decoration which will look beautiful on a low coffee table as well as on bookshelves or a sideboard.

In the photo, three different Kalanchoe varieties and Campanulas are used in silvery cache-pots and cache-pots in coloured glass which in this case provide a classic, soft look; however, the expression and style can be varied in numerous ways according to plant, colour and base.
